

BALÁZS NAGY economist in business development, engineering manager, teacher of economics, doctor of philosophy in the field of Economics and Management Sciences, earned his academic degree by multilevel modeling of competitiveness.

His current field of research is the exploration of the connection points of national and subnational competitiveness, with particular regard to territorial inequalities, the role of the state and the possibilities of business development. He gained his educational experience mainly in the fields of business economics, economic policy, project management and business analysis. He is a participant in several innovation-related researches and an expert in national competitiveness and innovation analyses.