

TAMÁS LŐCSEI joined the Tax and Legal Department in 1997, where he worked in the fields of customs and international trade law. He set up the Customs and International Trade group in 1999, which merged with the VAT group in 2002 to form Indirect Tax, which he headed as lead partner between 2005 and 2012. In 2004 Tamás was on secondment in Holland, Switzerland and Germany, where he gained indepth knowledge of the EU VAT system.

Since his appointment as Service line leader in July 2012, Tax & Legal Services has developed dynamically. From 2014 to 2017, he managed tax and legal operations in the CEE central territories (Poland, Hungary, Czech Republic, Slovakia and the Baltics). In 2017, he was appointed as CEE New Ventures and Innovation Leader.

He has been the Country Managing Partner of PwC Hungary since 2018 and from 2022 he also took on the role of Central Cluster leader, overseeing the following countries: Albania, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, Czech Republic, Hungary, Moldova, North-Macedonia, Romania, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia. Tamás is also coordinating German Business Group activities within CEE.

Tamás has extensive relationships with the Hungarian state administration, and has frequently been involved in drafting legislative proposals. He has helped numerous foreign investors to invest in Hungary and CEE. His clients are active in the financial, retail and manufacturing sectors. Tamás is an internationally recognised expert in taxation and state aid.

He was admitted to the Hungarian Bar in 2002. Tamás was awarded the Golden Cross of Merit of the Republic of Hungary in 2011.

