ABOUT

Terike from Budapest E-Showroom is an online platform that makes the works of contemporary Hungarian, primarily emerging, fashion designers available in a curated format to creative industry professionals — including filmmakers, musicians, stylists, producers, journalists, and brands.

The goal of the project is to connect domestic avant-garde fashion with cultural and media industry projects, thereby providing visibility and economic opportunities for young designers.

GOALS

During the six-month program, the aim is to develop the e-showroom module of the website and integrate it into the existing Terike from Budapest platform, as well as to establish the curatorial system and launch a pilot version with the participation of at least ten designers.
