

ZOLTÁN KRAJCSÁK is a full professor of business and management at Budapest Business University (Hungary). His research area covers organizational psychology and scientometrics. He is an active referee for international journals: he prepares approx. a hundred professional reviews per year for the editorial boards of Scopus-indexed journals.

He is also engaged in extensive editorial activities and is an editor for the following journals: Management Decision (Emerald), International Journal of Emergency Services (Emerald), Iranian Journal of Management Studies (University of Tehran) and Business: Theory and Practice (Vilnius Gediminas Technical University).

In addition, he is the Editor-in-Chief of Budapest Business University's journal Prosperitas. In 2021, he was awarded the prestigious Hungarian Bolyai János Research Scholarship (awarded by the Hungarian Academy of Sciences [MTA]) and MTA's Publication Award.

