

MOME ADMISSION PROCEDURE (MA COURSES)

DESIGN MASTER'S PROGRAMME
Parts of the entrance examination	Your task	Evaluation	Description and interpretation of the task	Notes
Portfolio, motivational letter, self-introduction video	Submitting an introductory application material including your portfolio, motivational letter, and self-introduction video.	At the interview	The purpose of a portfolio is to present your professional journey, relevant previous works and background to date. It may contain anything you find important from works completed as part of or separate from organised trainings to professional accomplishments. At least one project showcasing your design process in addition to the final result should also be presented using some of the following means for example: subject and concept description, brief case study presentation, mind mapping, manual drawings, digital visualisation, experimental models, prototypes and/or photos of the final item. You can choose to present the design process for some of your other projects as well. A motivational letter gives you the opportunity to present your designer credo and should cover the research subjects you are interested in, and how they are related to issues of contemporary design. A self-introduction video enables you present your designer character using your own audiovisual tools. In the one-minute long video, please present a project you consider to be your most important professionally. It can be a selfie video, a 'talking head', or any other format of your choice.	The portfolio should be in PDF format consisting of any number of A4 landscape pages, with a maximum size of 25 MB. The short video should be in mp4 file format and may not be longer than 60 seconds. Maximum accepted file size: 50 MB
Practical examination	Interview (duration: 20 minutes)	Maximum available score: 99	The practical examination consists of a discussion of your portfolio, previous studies, motivation, dedication, professional and general cultural knowledge, worldview, desired research subjects and vision for a future diploma project.
		Total: 99 points

Comments:

1. Information about the deadline and method of portfolio submission will be posted on our website by 1 February 2024.
2. Once the admission decision has been made, you will be notified in writing of your admission outcome at the end of the admission procedure.
3. Before the summer practical examination, candidates complete an online orientation questionnaire, which requires no prior preparation.

4. Please bring a printed CV and an ID photo with your name written on the back to the practical examination. In digital form, they will also form part of your application material.
5. Interview dates: Between 1 and 5 July 2024. The exact date and venue will be posted on the website.